

DON PURCELL, M.D.

PSYCHIATRY
NEUROLOGY

Curriculum Vitae

California Medical License: G87313

Hawai'i Medical License: 6702

Noetta EIN: 26-0061052

EDUCATION

Board Certified American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology (ABPN)

“Board Eligible” – American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM)

- 1976-1980 Gannon University, B.S., Biology and Chemistry, Erie, PA
- 1980-1985 University of Texas, M.D., Doctor of Medicine, Houston, TX
- 1985-1987 Research - UT Health Science Center, M.D., Anderson Cancer Hospital
- 1987-1988 Internship - University of Hawai'i, Oahu
- 1988-1990 Residency – University of Hawai'i, Primary Care Internal Medicine, Oahu
- 1990-1993 Residency – University of Hawai'i, Adult Psychiatry, Oahu

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

- American Medical Association
- American Psychiatric Association
- American College of Physicians

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- 02/2008 – Present Contract Psychiatrist to CFMG, Solano County, CA
- 02/2008 – Present Staff Psychiatrist DMH-VPP, Vacaville, CA
- 02/06 – 01/2008 Staff Psychiatrist DMH-SVPP, Soledad, CA
- 2002 – 2005 CE Seminars and Contract speaker for the pharmaceutical industry
- 2004 – 2005 Completed a culinary degree in Napa Valley, St. Helena, CA

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE (CONTINUED)

2003 – 2004	Kendall-Jackson Estates Vineyard, Winery and Culinary Operations
1996 – 1998	Staff Psychiatrist, San Island Treatment Facility (Dual-Diagnosis) Oahu, Hawai'i and Contract Pain Management – Queen's MC.
1993 – 2002	Private Practice – Primary Care Internal Medicine/ Adult-Psychiatry/ Pain Management
1991 – 1998	Medical Director, Hospice, Oahu, Hawai'i
1988 – 1990	Contract Physician for The Halawa Correctional Facility, Kaiser, Emergency Department (EDATA) and various military base treatment Facilities – all on Oahu, Hawai'i.
1987 – 1993	Internship and Residency Training (Medicine and Psychiatry).

TEACHING EXPERIENCE AND RESEARCH

I have given over 300 presentations on a wide variety of medical and general health related topics for both, CME and CE accreditation, as well as published medical research,

BOOK/ COLUMN/ MEDIA WORK

“The Power of Change” (©2001, Double Crane Pub.) – A patient-physician oriented “self-help” book on managing stress and health during times of personal growth and change.

SYMPOSIA

Developer/Moderator “The Pacific Pain Symposium” – a professional (CME/CE) educational experience in pain management. This event was given twice, and in conjunction with “The Dannemiller Memorial Educational Fdtn, (San Antonio, Texas).